HOST

Hayley Matthews-Jones

Hayley moved from London to Minneapolis, MN in 2008, and is the Founder and CEO of Minneapolis Craft Market and Minneapolis Vintage Market. Between the two markets she hosts more than 120 live events per year featuring 2,000 small businesses and artists, as well as a fully integrated digital marketplace where shoppers can buy handmade products from designers and makers of the North.

Hayley is also the COO of The Get Down Coffee Company, a roastery and café bringing diversity to specialty coffee in North Minneapolis. Founded during the civil uprisings after the murder of George Floyd in the summer of 2020, The Get Down is using coffee to foster cultural collision and diversify an industry that is typically neither welcoming nor diverse once the raw product is imported into the US. The Get Down flagship café opened in Camden town, Minneapolis in November of 2021, with beans available in select Target stores and on Target.com.

Minneapolis Craft Market received Twin Cities Metro Independent Business Association's inaugural Best Emerging Business award in 2016, Twin Cities Business Magazine's Most Likely to Succeed in Retail, 2017, and Hayley was named Special Events Planner of The Year by Minnesota Meetings and Events Magazine, and one of Minneapolis/St. Paul Business Journal's 40 Under 40, 2020.
